

A Social Story

Welcome! Before attending the sensory friendly performance of Buyer and Cellar explore our social story.

Sensory Friendly Performance

There will be a specially modified and relaxed sensory friendly performance of Buyer and Cellar on Wednesday the 9th of April at 1:30 p.m.

What to Expect

The runtime of Buyer and Cellar is approximately 1 hour and 40 minutes, with no intermission. There will be video images and use of recorded music throughout the performance. Immediately before the performance there will be a brief 'pre-show' welcome speech. Our house lights will be dimmed, NOT darkened. You may leave the theater at any time. A designated quiet space will be available for patrons and companions if they feel the need to leave the theater, and then return to the performance when they feel comfortable. Please see the House Manager to be reseated.

Who, what, and where?

There is one actor on stage playing the role of Alex, and the voices of Vincent, Sharon, Barry, and Barbra Streisand.

We are in a beautiful sitting room/salon, elegant and classical, if not a little flamboyant. The back wall of the salon at times will show video images of Barbra's basement mall, and her lavishly decorated home.

What happens

Alex retells his hysterical account of how he came to work for Barbra Streisand, and some of the anecdotes as their unlikely relationship developed.

The End of the Play

The lights will become slightly brighter, and the actor will take his bow. Some audience members may clap their hands to show their appreciation. Then you will leave your seat, and exit the theater through the same door that you entered from. Other people will be leaving too, so there will be increased activity in the foyer as people prepare to go outside.

Renaissance Theaterworks proudly shares its home at

The entrance to our theater is at street level and the doors have push plate access; they open straight from the street into a smoothly surfaced foyer, with clear travel patterns. There will be staff members ready to greet you, and other audience members as they arrive. Some people and patrons will be mingling. If you want to hang up your coat, there is a coat rack.

As you enter the inside of the theater

What you'll find inside

Directly in front, you will find our bar area. You can purchase soft drinks, adult beverages, or tea and coffee if you wish. To the right you will find our box-office glass windows, where tickets can be collected or enquiries made. To the north and south side of the foyer are the public restrooms, each with a separate fully ADA stall. Programs will be available from our ushers, or from staff members at the Renaissance tables.

Public Restrooms

The women's bathrooms are to the right of the box office, and the men's are to the left side of the bar area.

Going into the Theater, or The House

We open the house to the audience 30 minutes before the performance or 'curtain up' begins,'

There is one main entrance to head towards the stage area, or the 'house' from the foyer, at ground level, where your electronic or paper tickets will be scanned by an usher. Then you will then either turn left or right to enter the actual stage area. Your row and seat number will be on your tickets, this is where you will sit. Ushers will also be present to help guide you to your seats if you have any questions.

The Stage, or Performing Space

In our theater we have what we call a thrust stage. There are rows of seats on either side and at the front. The back of the stage is where the actors will enter from. There will be accessible audience seating for wheelchair users and companion seating at ground and stage level. You will sit here to watch the performance, but you can get up and move around or leave the space if you need to. There will be a quiet space provided for you. Follow the signs or ask an usher.
